WRIT FOR SPECIAL ELECTION

It Will Probably Not Be Issued Eefore Early Next Week-News and Gossip from the Capitol and Library.

Governor Montague will return here this morning at 9:15 o'clock from Baltimore, where he has been since Sunday. It is likely that he will proceed at once to Lynchburg to attend the funeral of his late friend, Congressman Otey. The rnor will not discuss the matter of Governor will not discuss the matter of ordering a special election to fill the va-cancy occasioned by Major Otey's death until after the funeral, which will take place on Friday.

He will doubtless be asked to fix an early date for the special election and to issue the writearly next week. Outside of this there are no matters of special moment pending in the Executive Department, save those which occur in the routine management of the office.

Secretary Frank P. Brent, of the State Board of Education, has received a let-ter from Dr. P. B. Barringer, chairman of the faculty of the University of Vir-ginia, to be present at the educational ginla, to be present at the educational rally there early in July.

The letter reads, in part, as follows:

The new Constitution gives the inestimable privilege of local taxation for educational purposes, yet there is no plan perfected for putting this blessing into operation. We want a meeting of educators, the prominent business men of the State and counsellors, who could devise a proper and harmonious scheme for working out the purposes of this Constitution. It will be a great opportunity. The teachers of the School of Methods will be here and official representatives of education from many secsentatives of education from many sections. Promise us you will come and aid us in our efforts."

Captain W. W. Barrow, Assistant Adjutant-General, has returned from Lynchburg, where he presided at the election of officers for Company E, Seventieth Regiment, on Monday.

While Captain Barrow did not care to discuss his trip for publication, it was learned on reliable authority that Capt. R. E. Craighill, formerly commandant of the old Zouaves, was chosen captain and that owing to a deadlock the lieutenants could not be elected.

DAY IN THE POLICE COURT.

Woman Pleaded to Be Allowed to Go to Jail With Her Son. Tearfully and pittfully a woman pleaded with Justice Crutchfield in the Police Court yesterday to be allowed to go to fail with her son. This being refused, she declared that she would stay outside until her boy was released. The boy was young Chester Atkinson, accused, with several others, of stealing merchandise from a car the other day. Mrs. Atkinson yesterday left court, weeping,

FARMERS TO SHOOT.

Second Annual Event of Ashland Club on June 10th.

The second annual farmers' shoot of the Ashland Gun Club on June 10th will tring together nearly all of the fine field shots in Eastern Virginia. Last year only those living in Hanover were eligible, and about one hundred and fifty were present, most of whom shot.

This year all farmers who deal in Rich-mond are eligible and this takes in nearly all the counties east of the mountains. The valuable prizes offered will cause many a gun to come out of the rack, to be shot at chips rocks and tlying targets preparatory to entering this race.

The management is endeavoring to ge up clubs from the counties to shoot in team races, which will certainly be entertaining.

A large number of shooters from the various gum clubs of the State will likely attend to enter the open events, which will follow the farmer shoot.

Programmes, list of prizes and rules will be ready for distribution in a short Thomas H. Fox. secretary while. of the Ashland Gun Club, Ashland, Va. will mail the same on application.

LAUNCHING OF LANCASTER.

Boat Took to the Water Well-Christened by Little Miss Myers.

The launching of the tug Lancaster yesterday at the yards of the W R. Trigg Company was a success in every way. A large crowd was present, and the boat glided off the ways in fine shape. The ceremonies attending the launching were extremely simple. The boat was decked out in flags of different shapes and colors. The sponsor was little Miss Frances C. Myers, daughter of Mr. E C. D. Myers, Jr.

Accompanying her were her maid of honor, about the same size as herself, and several children. The presence of the little girls was one of the most at-tractive features of the affair. After the aunching an informal lunch and reception was held. The new boat is bulit for the Pennsyl-

BAPTISTS OFF FOR ASHEVILLE

Many Will Attend the Great Dr. Battle Will Respond to the Southern Convention.

MR. TILLERY CHANGES FAITH

Methodist Minister to Be Immersed by Rev. Joel T. Tucker-Great Demand in Virginia for Bibles.

Other Religious Notes,

Quite a number of the Virginia delegates to the Southern Baptist Conven-tion left yesterday for Asheville. Dr. A. E. Dickinson and wife left in the afternoon, and the following were expected to leave at night: Dr. E. E. Bowers, of the Foreign Mission Board; Dr. James Nelson, of the Woman's College; Dr. W. T. Derieux and wife, Mr. J. D. Crump and wife and others. Dr. W. E. Hatcher will leave to-day, and Dr. R. H. Pitt, of the Religious Herald, will go later. The session of the convention promises to be a most interesting one. A letter has just been received here from the Rev. C. D. Daniel, who is at the head of the Paptist mission work in Cuba, stating that he will be present, and while there is no direct intimation to that effect, it is practically certain that Mr. Daniel comes to this country and to the convention in connection with the squabble in Havana between Diaz and the Home Mission Board. He will repre-sent the Board's side in the matter and will be on hand to give such information as may be called for. It is not generally thought that Diaz, on his part, can be able to be present. The Landmark Baptists who are standing behind him in the controversy with the Board, started a movement to bring the Cuban to Ameri but it is hardly thought that the scheme is practicable.

The Rev. J. R. Tillery, late of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has decided to leave the ministry and the denomination. He will affiliate with the Baptists and will become a member of the East-End Baptist Church, of this city. He will be baptized within the next week or two.

In 1901, at the meeting of the Baltimore Conference in Roanoke, Mr. Tillery was charged with irregular conduct and was not given a charge. A committee appointed to investigate the case submitted a report at the recent meeting of the conference, and while there was no trial, there was sufficient evidence of imprudence against Mr. Tillery to prevent his further continuance in the conference. For the past year or more he has been living in this city.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Orphanage of Virginia was held yesterday at the resi-dence of Mr. John P. Branch, of this city.

The chief action of the board was the election of the Rev. E. H. Rawlings, of Portsmouth, to succeed Dr. J. W. Bledsoe as chairman of the Board. Dr. Bledsoe has been elected superintendent of the Orphanage and will reside at the institution in this city. Two new trustees were elected as follows: Mr. Augustus Wright, of Petersburg, and Mr. McElmore, of Suffolk. The report of the treasurer and of the Executive Committee were received and accepted. All matters of detail, the appointment of teachers, applications and other things, were referred to the Executive Committee, except in the case of Mrs. Betty Lee, who was appointed matron, and Miss Rosa The chief action of the board was the was appointed matron, and Miss Rosa Shepherd one of the teachers. No new gifts were reported. It was decided to open the Orphanage some time in July. At 2:39 o'clock or shortly thereafter, the members of the Board visited the Orphan-age and inspected the new buildings.

In the forthcoming issue of the Christian Advocate John P. Branch has a letter on "The War Claim," concerning the payment of the Methodist Publishing House claim. Mr. Branch defends Mr. Stahlman, contending his fee was a just one, and not exorbitant, as was charged by the Senators. He also renews his offer to give $1,000 towards a sum to convey to the United States treasury the nount contested.

An interesting fact brought out in connection with the annual meeting of the Lible Society of Virginia Monday after-noon, is that there is in Virginia to-day a greater call for the Bible than ever before. Not only this society, but the others as well have sold and distributed more copies of the scriptures during the past twelve months than they have done at any time in their history. tions of the State where up to this time the Bible has been little known or used are now being thoroughly covered. All the prisons of the State are receiving Bibles for the benefit of the inmates.

Stens were taken Monday night at a meeting of the Presbyterian Sunday-school Union to have held at some time in the near future a great rally of all the Sunday-school children in the city of all comminations. The president of the union, the Rev. W. S. Campbell, was directed to confer with the presidents of the other Sunday-school rganizations in the city in reference to the matter.

It was decided by the Union to have the annual picnic this year at Buckroe Beach on the 19th of June. A committee consisting of one representative from each school was appointed to make all necessary arrangements.

The night school in the Methodist Mission, Mr. Lewis Judkins, principal, closed its winter session Monday night. Prizes were awarded to the following den and Son; Nora Gunn and Cora Sterling, books, from Bell and Co.; Charles Breeden, Joe Plancitteni, Ar-thur Gunn, and Harry Gunn, caps, from Burk and Company.

LIGHTNING'S FREAKS.

Damaged Church Steeples and Chimneys-Streets Washed, Sewers Flushed.

In the storm of Monday night the stee ple of Broadus Memorial Church, at Thirty-second and Broad Streets, was struck and damaged to the extent of about $50. Several residents in the vi-cinity of the church were slightly sheeked.

The chimney of the house No. 3120 East Broad Street was also shartered. Bricks and soot were driven into the rorms of the house, and considerable damage was done to carpets and furni tare. The house is occupied by Mr. Charles C. Greer and his family.

Randolph-Street Church steeple was struck and slightly damaged. Other than these casualties little damage was done by the storm. The streets were washed and the sewers were flushed. In some places small trees were blown over, but nothing serious happened

They Want Shorter Hours on Satnrdays—Organized Labor Intercedes.
The Central Trades and Labor Council, through its secretary, Mr. W. H. Mullen, corresponding secretary, has sent a letter to the leading dry goods merchants of this city, asking them to close their stores on Saturdays at 7 o'clock. The letter is written because of an appeal made to the council by some your peal made to the council by some young ladies who are employed in the stores, saying that their hours are so long on Saturdays that they are broken down and are kept up so late on Saturday nights that they are unable to attend church on Sunday mornings.

President F. W. Boatwright received a telegram yesterday from United States Senator Thomas L. Martin, stating that the omnibus claims bill, including the college bill, had been agreed on by the Committee of Conference from the Sen-ate and House of Representatives. The Senate has adopted e report of Com-mittee of Conference and Mr. Martin believes that the House will adopt it in a few days. Senator Martin has pressed the claim of the college vigorously and deserves a great deal of credit for its success. The faculty of the college has received an invitation to send a committee to represent them at the inauguration of Dr. George H. Denny as president of the Washington and Lee University, which occurs June 17th.

The faculty has accepted the invitation and will send several of the professors to be present on that occasion, GOING TO ASHEVILLE.

Several of the college professors will leave to-day for Asheville, N. C., to attend the Southern Baptist Convention, which convenes in that city Friday. In the party will be President F. W. Boat-wright, Dr. W. H. Whitsitt, Dr. W. E. Hatcher, Dr. C. H. Ryland, Dr. J. R. Hunter and Professor R. E. Gaines.

In and Around The Lobbies.

A group of prominent Democrats were t night new Constitution, and they argued strongly for proclamation. Among them was Colonel John W. Richardson, Register of the Land Office. He has recently trains up to May 10. was Colonel John W. Richardson, Regis-ter of the Land Office. He has recently returned from the Southwest, and says he found the Democrats out there, with few exceptions, talking for proclamation. Dr. Jud B. Wood is enthusiastic on this line. He believes there should be a monster meeting at the Academy, addre by Senator Glass, or Mr. Withers, of Dan-ville, and he is sure it would go for proc-lamation with a whoop. Dr. Wood thinks there might be other meetings held throughout the city to ascertain the sen-timent of the voters of the city. He says from his active touch with the business people here, he is sure they are over-whelmingly for proclamation.

Hon. W. H. Boaz, of Albemarle, has returned nere from Charlottesville, where he attended the mass-meeting on Monlay, and was at New Ford's last night. Mr. Boaz was in a very happy frame of mind and wore a smile of joy, such as is said to play over his features when Pippin apples are selling high in the Liv-erpool market. Mr. Boaz, like his colleague, Mr. Lindsaly, has favored prociamation for some time, but felt hampered by the canvass he made in favor of submitting to the abridged electorate.

Captain John A. Curtis was amnog his friends at Murphy's last night, and was telling them of the great time he expected to have next week with the Virginia-Maryland Oyster Commission out on the waters of the Chesapeake and its tributaries. Captain Curtis is an "old dog of enchanted by the music of the deshing
